Document 1: Welcome and Uganda Investment Authority Overview

Welcome! This introductory document explains who the Uganda Investment Authority (UIA) is, what it does for investors, and where to find it. It is the best place to start before reading the process, legal and incentive documents that follow (see Documents 2 to 7).

Background: The Uganda Investment Authority was set up under the Investment Code of 1991, which was revised in 2019. It is a statutory agency mandated to initiate and support measures that enhance investment in Uganda and to advise Government on policies that support investment promotion and growth. UIA describes itself as a semi-autonomous government agency that drives national economic growth and development in partnership with the private sector.

What UIA Does: As an Investment Promotion Agency, UIA mainly does the following:

- Markets investment opportunities.
- Promotes packaged investment projects.
- Ensures local and foreign investors have access to information, especially about the business environment, so they can make informed decisions.
- Offers business support, advisory and advocacy services.

Objectives: UIA's published objectives are to:

- Attract value-adding investment that brings technology, skills and jobs.
- Contribute to the image of Uganda as a leading African investment destination.
- Stimulate and lead key stakeholders in creating a competitive business environment.
- Set up and develop Industrial and Business Parks.
- Offer support to domestic investors.

Vision and Mission: UIA's vision is a globally competitive Uganda, profitable for business and investment. Its mission is to promote and facilitate investment projects, provide serviced land, and advocate for a competitive business environment.

Who UIA Serves: UIA is the first point of contact for any potential investor, whether foreign or domestic. Its Domestic Investment Division supports and facilitates the development of micro, small and medium enterprises (MSMEs), who are mostly domestic entrepreneurs.

Where to Find UIA: Since 17 October 2022 UIA has operated from its permanent home at the Uganda Business Facilitation Centre (UBFC), Plot 1, Baskerville Avenue, Kololo, Kampala. The UBFC also hosts the One-Stop Centre for Investors, which brings together 15 investment and business support agencies, and the sister agencies Uganda Registration Services Bureau (URSB) and the Capital Markets Authority (CMA). Details of the One-Stop Centre are in Document 3.
